Excerpt: . . . legislature has passed a file (G) 4 1. R. 588. See 2 Chitty, P, C. Departure, (bl 1 Burr. 322 BALDWIN no AL. v. nomooimnr. 288 facilitate and ensure the means of ascertaining the true boundaries of lots according to their numbers, and if common sense is to have any thing to do with the decision of this question, it would be manifestly absurd to hold this description of the land claimed as bad for uncertainty. On the authority of Cottingham v. King, Burr, 621, Joans v. Heel, Cro. Eliz. 235, and the observation made by the court in Knight v. Syms, 4 Mod. 97, I think we may hold this declaration good. It is true, that declaring for a close merely by name has been often held to be insufficient, and in 4 Mod. 97, the reason is given. The court say, Names of places are neither necessary nor material in giving possession, because they often change with the properties, -and the sheriff must have sufficient notice out of the record itself to give possession. This reason is wholly inapplicable to land in this country, designated by the proper lot and concession, for that is a name not liable to change at the will of the proprietor, but known and recorded in public offices of the government and sufficient to direct the sheriff with certainty; better indeed than any mode in use in England, or any other mode that can be adopted here. Council can sustain...
