Then looking off toward the galaxy of stars, for we were coming home from an evening meeting, she murmured, as though talking to the invisible Presence-- Nor bounds, nor climes, nor creed thou know st, Wide as our need Thy favors fall; The white wings of the Holy Ghost Stoop, seen or unseen, o er the heads of all. And there in fact would be all the rest of the village, squeezed inside the large square room dignified with the name of hall, where they roasted, and perspired, and breathed for a couple of hours at a time--not the perfume of a thousand flowers, but the peppermint-scented goose grease wherewith Crazy Tim s mother preserved the youthful luxuriance of her locks, and various other grades of perfume, from Miss Grimshaw s musk to Mrs. Murray s White Hose. The Episcopal edifice bore the humble title of Christ Church, a name given it by a venerable bishop when it was built, in the early days. It was a small Gothic structure, with infinitesimal windows, insuring the dim religious light dear to the mystical worshiper. Around it stood a few ancient weather-stained tombstones bearing such feminine names as Patience, Obedience, Meekness, the former owners of the names lying beside their lords and masters toward whom these virtues were supposed to have been exercised. It was a long time since those women lived and moved and had their being among mortal...
