Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Three Great Races of Men: Origin, Character, History and Destiny, With Special Regard From some knowledge of the unlettered working-men of the nation, I can assure him that these are the thoughts that lie deep in the heart of the great mass of their most intelligent men, which do and will form the basis of their practical action, whether they ever give them utterance in words or not. Their hearty practical contempt for the manifold shams in our age and time, both in Church and in State, grows out of innate intuition, which the reader will find herein more or less clearly expressed. No right, however, is claimed of speaking even in their behalf: they can and will speak for themselves - at least at the polls. The reasons for the necessity of Horn, to both the white and the black races, at the South, the reader will find noted; without which there can be neither hope for the Republic nor for the Continent. Much herein contained was deemed, when first uttered to private audiences,...
