OCLC Number: (OCoLC)46863467 Excerpt: . . . he Committee, OMB and the agencies will work together as we have in the past to prepare for the management tests that lay ahead at a time when taxpayers reasonably expect the most value for the least cost. Finally, let me discuss OMBs oversight of the Executive Branch regulatory process. From my perspective, this is one of the most consequential roles played by OMB, though not one that is well known. Through the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, if confirmed, Mr. Daniels, you will supervise the review of rules that provide critical protections to public health, worker safety, consumers and the environment. This Committee was actively involved in sorting out problems in the early years of regulatory review, problems that at that point undermined public trust in the fairness of the process. This morning, I would ask you to be vigilant and to oppose those who would use the process as a conduit to influence rule- making off the record and without disclosure. Regulatory agencies must have the capacity to do what Congress has asked them to do, in the full light of sunshine, to protect the publics interest. So, bottom line, we on the Governmental Affairs Committee and you at OMB have a lot of work to do together. We look forward to forging a partnership with you on these important matters in the public interest. Senator Thompson. OPENING STATEMENT OF SENATOR THOMPSON Senator Thompson. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman. It is a great delight for me to be here today because of my friendship with the nominee, my personal regard for him, and the prospect of having someone with his background and capabilities working in...
