Who sweats afield and prays to God at home, will never starve. Trust in God, and keep your powder dry. -Cnomwsnn. Call upon God, but don't irritate the Devil, which last, though not quite to the same effect as the others, embodies a deeper and more subtle, though perhaps a more dangerous, idea. See z Maccab. xv. 27. | | 6. Dros sufre a las malos, pero no para siempre. God bears with the wicked, but not for ever. n. 4.o. Another form of this proverb is, Dio: c0miente, pero no para: iempre. Eng. God stays long, but strikes at last.RAY. | 17. Muchas son los caminas por donde lleva Dlos a los suyas al cielo. Many are the roads by which God brings his own to Heaven. | 18. Ayude DIOS con lo suya a...
