ABOUT THE BOOK Henrietta, the legendary Dragon Slayer of the Kingdom of Bleuve, can't stomach the thought of one more kill. Yet, in order to save her dying mentor, she must go on one last quest. But will misfit companions, seasickness, and an ego maniacal king derail the quest for the healing stone? And will she be able to cut past her conscience and kill the dragon? HENRIETTA THE DRAGON SLAYER EXCERPT -- Chapter 1 Battle-hardened and brave Ready for the fight Henrietta the Dragon Slayer Swings with all her might -- From the chorus of the Song of the Dragon Slayer Henrietta strode away from the tavern, fists clenched so hard they hurt. At two paces from the forest edge, the ground crunched in the black night behind her. Even with her ale-fogged brain, she sensed the presence of a man, smelled on him soot, leather and metal, and knew he was armed, but wore no armor. She didn't have time for this. What do you want? Henrietta whirled to face the thrill seeker, her long sword drawn, her long red hair whipping across her chilled cheeks. Above her head, the bitter wind keened through the forest trees. The man hovered five feet-lengths away from her, out of sword reach, his face shadowed by the light of the tavern behind him. I heard your story back there. His...
