South Western/Cengage Learning India, 2013. Softcover. Book Condition: New. 5th or later edition. Focus on the Physical Environment and Geography: Updated maps provide context in terms of social and economic data, including electronic maps. An appendix directly addresses the relationship between geography and international marketing. New Cases: Each Part section is followed by 4 cases, with 2 additional cases online. Presented on a variety of topics, these cases present students with real business situations. All cases address the activities of actual or former companies and cover a broad geographic spectrum. Video Cases: Video cases are located within the case section and are available on DVD for instructors. These cases further illustrate chapter topics and have been expanded from previous editions. Recommended Readings: Found at the end of each chapter, the authors have provided additional recommended reading to be assigned in class, or to be utilized as an additional resource. Internet Exercises: Included at the end of each chapter, Internet exercises give readers online experience at the international and global issues that arise in marketing. E-Commerce and Technology: The impact of technology and e-commerce on marketing communications, channels, logistics, and research is thoroughly integrated throughout the text. Culture and Government: The text emphasizes on culture and how it affects business decisions in marketing, while also emphasizing policy issues to accurately portray the increase in governments' role in international marketing. Figures and Tables: The chapter content, tables, figures, maps, and examples have been thoroughly updated in this new edition to reflect the changes happening in the world around us. New Parsimony of Structure: The book now covers the marketing issues of both small- and medium-sized firms, as well as multi-national corporations. It does so by identifying both the similarities and the differences in marketing activities which result from differences in size, impact,...
