Bat at a season when the heavy pecuniary losses sustained in India rendered it an immediate duty to supply the urgent necessities of the Missionary department properly so called, it was felt that an object of such magnitude and importance as that which is embraced by the present publication, could not with justice or propriety be introduced to the notice of the same parties, much less pressed upon their consideration. The necessities of the living agents in the work, and these the devoted servants of God raised up in India, imperatively called for our first attention. And if it was due to the Memoir itself, to delay for a short season, much also was felt, and justly felt, to be due to him who has laboured so long, in the integrity and uprightness of his heart, to convey to these Eastern Nations the living Oracles of God. Injustice to him, therefore, and not to him...
