In the sequel to Mary Wallace Roanhorse, Mary re-locates to Albuquerque to start a new life after the accidental death of Charlie McHale, her beloved friend and mentor. She falls in love with Cobalt, a computer and Internet savant and after many years of separation, she re-unites with her father, who abandoned her and her mother decades earlier. Her saga is not over. To protect other sexually abused children, she testifies against her foster father, George Alexander. Determined to destroy Mary, Reverend Mitch organizes a campaign to discredit her and insure his father is found not guilty. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
